CONVENTION INFORMATION

RULES OF THE CONVENTION: On the basis of long experience, your association, consistent with the Constitution, has adopted Standing Rules for its national meetings. They are printed in the "Governing Instruments" pamphlet and all delegates should be familiar with them. The National President emphasizes that every Delegation Chairperson and individual delegates should become familiar with the rules so that we have an orderly and productive convention. Copies of the rules are available at the Credentials Desk.

RESOLUTIONS: The National Resolutions Committee has been working for weeks in advance of the convention to evaluate and make recommendations regarding resolutions which have come from Section Meetings and Department Conventions. One copy of these resolutions that the Resolutions Committee has agreed to recommend prior to the convention will be made available to each department upon request. Committees must return referred resolutions to the Resolutions Committee no later than 3:30 p.m., Tuesday February 9, 2010. The Resolutions Committee will finalize its recommendations for the convention on Tuesday evening, and resolutions packets will be distributed prior to the vote on Wednesday.

CONGRESSIONAL OFFICE VISITS: One of the most important activities of ROA members is the "Taking it to the Hill" program during the National Convention. All ROA members and their spouses are encouraged to visit their elected officials on Capitol Hill. They should call on the offices of their representatives and senators in Congress to solicit support on pending issues, and express appreciation for supporting defense and the Reserve Component in the past. Free shuttle buses will transport members from the Hilton Washington to Capitol Hill starting on Wednesday, February 10, from 7:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. The last bus will return to the hotel from in front of the VFW building (corner of 2nd St. & Constitution Ave. NE) at 12:30 p.m. Informational materials, including ROA's Legislative Agenda and fact sheet on key issues, will be available in the Jefferson East room of the Hilton Washington on Tuesday, February 9, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. During the same time, lectures will be given about last year's legislative successes and this year's issues.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS: Unless designated in the program "For committee members only," all committee meetings are open to convention attendees. Of course, room size may limit attendees in some cases.

DRESS: For the President's Reception on Wednesday, the dress is Winter Mess Dress or formal attire; during the convention meetings all serving officers are encouraged to wear their service duty uniform, complying with all uniform regulations. Business attire is also appropriate.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS: Personal room reservations, check-out, paying of bills, etc., are the individual's responsibility.

BREAKFAST, LUNCHEONS, RECEPTION RESERVATIONS: ROA Convention officials must place the order for luncheons and dinners at least 48 hours in advance. This places upon attendees the obligation to make specific advance reservations. The lists for these meal functions will close at the time the order is placed with the hotel, and the number will be based upon specific reservations.

ROAL REGISTRATION: ROAL members will be registered in the same manner as ROA members; tickets will be issued for convention functions. ROAL Luncheon is not included in the registration fee; however, a ticket can be purchased at registration for $65.

ROTC DOD/ROA PENTAGON SEMINAR: In conjunction with the National Convention, ROA departments and chapters sponsor outstanding cadets and midshipmen to the seminar. The Department of Defense and the Reserve Officers Association join together to provide briefings by key DoD officials. The students are urged to attend all convention functions listed in the RCJOPDS/ROTC program.

EXPOSITION: Members are encouraged to visit our 25th Annual Reserve Component Expo. We have more than 85 booths, so plan to make several visits. Exhibitors are listed in this program. Please don't forget that a buffet lunch will be provided to all registered attendees on Tuesday, February 9 at 11:30 a.m.

PRESS ROOM: This office works with members of the media to tell ROA's story and coordinate activities involving the press. Members of the Public Affairs Committee should check in at the Press Room (convention offices 2&3 on the concourse level) as soon as possible to assist in public affairs activities. All interested ROA members are invited to stop by during its open hours to participate in the Hometown News Release Program.
