

RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION'S CW4 MICHAEL J. NOVOSEL OUTSTANDING WARRANT OFFICER AWARD PROGRAM

Reserve Officers Association is pleased to announce the 2011 competition for the Reserve Officers Association's (ROA) CW4 Michael J. Novosel Outstanding Warrant Officer of the Year Award. Three (3) finalists will be selected by the EXCOM Initial Selection Committee in December and requested to attend the ROA National Convention in Washington, DC, 29 January – 2 February 2011, for a personal interview with the Final Selection Committee. The final selection and presentation of the award will be made during the ROA National Convention. All finalists will be recognized with certificates and a reception in their honor. The winner will receive a plaque and his/her name will be placed on the permanent award displayed at ROA National Headquarters.

1. PURPOSE: This program was established to annually recognize the achievements and dedicated service of Warrant Officer members of the Reserve Officers Association while contributing to the following desirable activities:

a. Increase interaction between respective services and ROA Departments.

b. Enhance communication among ROA Service Sections and Department Vice Presidents.

c. Enhance and encourage membership and participation in ROA by Warrant Officers. All activities should be accomplished with maximum public relations activity.

2. ELECTION CRITERIA:

a. Mandatory - Nominees must:

(1) Be a warrant officer in grade WO1, CW2, or CW3 at the time of the ROA National Convention.

(2) Be a member in good standing of ROA at the time of nomination and the ROA National Convention.

(3) Receive endorsement from their unit/command.

(4) Receive endorsement from the ROA department in which they hold membership.

(5) Be a member of the Ready Reserve (i.e., a USAR Troop Program Unit, the National Guard, the Individual Ready Reserve, USMCR, USNR, the Coast Guard Reserve) or participating in their respective AGR, TAR or IMA programs at the time of submission of the nomination.

b. Nominees shall be judged on the following: (not necessarily in order of importance)

(1) Military and civilian education, experience, achievements, awards and decorations.

(2) Community and professional activities.

(3) ROA participation.

c. Any Warrant Officer may be reconsidered in subsequent years if all requirements are again satisfied and he/she has never been selected as the ROA Outstanding Warrant Officer.

3. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS:

- a. The selection process shall approximate procedures utilized in a "best qualified" method of selection for promotion.
- b. The nomination packet must be in the format found at the enclosure.
- c. National ROA will bear no expense for the three finalists for attendance at the ROA National Convention for the Final Selection interview.

d. Any of the final three candidates who cannot attend the interview meeting during the National Convention will still be considered provided a written explanation of his or her absence is received at ROA Headquarters prior to the final selection. Any finalist whose absence is caused by active duty military service (e.g., Mobilization, Annual Training, Active Duty for Special Work, Active Duty Training) shall automatically become a finalist for the subsequent year, provided that the finalist: (i) notifies ROA in writing prior to the interview meeting that active duty military service will preclude the finalist from attending the interview meeting and provides ROA with a copy of the military orders that place him/her on active duty military service on the date of the interview meeting; and (ii) re-submits an updated nomination packet to ROA, through the candidate's current ROA Department, in accordance with the procedures set out in this memorandum. In an ROA Department where a finalist from the previous year is automatically included as a finalist candidate for the subsequent year, that ROA Department also may nominate a second warrant officer for consideration in accordance with the selection process prescribed by this memorandum.

e. This Warrant Officer competition is based on nominee's ROA Department membership affiliation and not on the state of residence or unit assignment. Although only one candidate can be endorsed by a department, units who have members in more than one Department may submit more than one candidate; however, no more than one candidate per service section per Department based on the ROA membership of the candidates.

(Example: If the 1/340th Infantry Regiment has three Warrant Officers who meet all nomination requirements, two are members of the Maryland Department and one is a member of the Virginia Department, then the Commander, 1/340th, may submit two nominations. One to Virginia and one to Maryland.)

EXCEPTION:

If a nomination packet is received from Commander, U.S. Army Human Resources Command, the Department may also endorse the IMA/IRR candidate. This would give the Department two nominees for the Initial Selection Board conducted at ROA National Headquarters in December.

(2) To enhance the visibility of this relatively new program and until such time as a greater number of applicants are received, departments may nominate more than one candidate for this award as an exception for the selection process for 2011.

f. Nominating Commands and Departments are strongly encouraged to sponsor their finalist candidates for professional development attendance at the ROA National Convention.

g. The nominee selected to represent the Department will be that Department's Outstanding Warrant Officer of the Year. Departments are strongly encouraged to appropriately recognize this officer.

4. Regional Readiness Commands (RRCs)/General Officer Commands (GOCOM) and The State Adjutant Generals (TAGs).

- a. Establish a POC at your Headquarters.
- b. Notify all units of this award program and request nomination packets be submitted to your Headquarters in time to select one candidate (per ROA Department) and forward that packet to ROA National Headquarters, ATTN: Army Section, no later than 13 September, 2010. Again all nominations must have unit/command endorsements and be postmarked NLT 13 September 2010.

5. COMMANDER, U.S. ARMY HUMAN RESOURCES COMMAND

a. Nominate no more than five qualifying warrant officer candidates from the IRR and IMA programs.

b. No more than one U.S. Army Human Resources Command nominee may be from any one State/ROA Department. In situations where the ROA Department has also selected a nominee, the Department may forward two packets - one representing the Department and the other representing U.S. Army Human Resources Command.

c. Forward the nominating packets to ROA National Headquarters, ATTN: Army Section, no later than 13 September 2010. Again all nominations must have U.S. Army Human Resources Command endorsements and be postmarked NLT 13 September 2010.

6. DEPARTMENT PRESIDENT:

a. Take all appropriate actions to insure all in Department are aware of this competition.

b. Select the Department's Outstanding Warrant Officer from the nominating packets received. (If a nominating packet is received from Commander, U.S. Army Human Resources Command, the Department may also endorse this IMA/IRR candidate. This and the situation described in paragraph 3.d. and 3.e. above are the only circumstances where more than one nominee from a single department will be considered.)

c. Endorse the selection(s) and forward the original packet(s) to ROA National Headquarters ATTN: Army Section, no later than 25 October 2010.

d. Notify the selected nominee(s) and furnish a copy to the submitting command.

e. Return packets to the non-selected candidates. Furnish a copy of the cover letter to the submitting command.

f. The selected nominee is the department's Outstanding Warrant Officer of the Year. Arrange for appropriate recognition.
